The objectionable passages pointed out by S.R. have been noticed by this Office already. The Editor has published certain political articles, editorial and other, not all of which were submitted for Press Advice. The objectionable passages in the issue of 12-9-41 were noticed, but action was deferred. Again, the objectionable passages in the issue of 19-9-41 were noticed and the Editor was asked to state why he did not submit the article entitled "Notes of the Way" for Press Advice beforehand. He replied that it was by oversight and that he would thereafter submit all political articles before publication. Subsequently, the issue of 26-9-41 came out with an editorial about the "Detenus in Deoli Camp" (not submitted for Press Advice). This was noticed immediately and the Editor was asked to state why this was not submitted beforehand and advised to submit all political articles for Press Advice beforehand. Copy of Editor's reply is enclosed. Future conduct of the paper will be watched.
